OUR CHARITIES

Since its inception in 2011, The Devlin Foundation, Inc. has donated more than $95,000 to charities related to the growth of Junior Golf.

For 2016, the Board of Directors of The Devlin Foundation voted to support the First Tee of the Lowcountry and the AJGA ACE Grant Program. Your participation in the 2016 Inside The Ropes Event directly contributes to these deserving charities, while providing a tax-deductible contribution to your organization!

The First Tee of the Lowcountry

(www.thefirstteelowcountry.org) is a young and growing chapter in the First Tee in the local community of Secession Golf Club, Bruce Devlin's favorite design. In their second year, they grew their satellite locations from two to seven courses in the area, finished construction of a 13 acre junior golf facility as well as many more notable achievements. The support of The Devlin Foundation has an immediate impact on the lives of junior golfers in the Lowcountry South Carolina area.

The AJGA ACE Grant

(Achieving Competitive Excellence) (www.ajga.org) Is the first credible financial assistance program in junior golf. The AJGA is the breeding ground for competitive junior golfers. These talented players become the college and professional golfers of the future. The ACE Grant helps families provide opportunities for juniors who have the talent, but not the financial resources to potentially earn a college scholarship. Of 30 juniors who graduated out of the ACE Grant Program in 2015, 29 received a college scholarship.

The Devlin Foundation has supported the following charities since our inception in 2011:

The LeVeen-Roach Scholarship Fund

was established in memory of two members of Secession Golf Club who lost their lives in the World Trade Center during the terrorist attacks on September 11, 2001. This scholarship fund helped many deserving scholars in the Beaufort, SC area attend college since 2001.

The First Tee of Fort Worth brings "The game that lasts a lifetime" to more than 30,000 local youth every year, one of the largest Chapters of the First Tee in the US.

The Devlin Foundation is very proud of the contributions we have made and look forward to the future. We hope you can be a part of this intimate, exclusive opportunity, while providing growth to the game we love.

THE MAN BEHIND THE NAME

Bruce Devlin became involved with the game of golf in Australia as a teenager after an accident took his father's arm. As well as being a professional golfer, he is a sportscaster and golf course designer.

On the golf course, he enjoyed a great deal of success from 1957-1960 in Australia with wins at the Australian Amateur and Australian Open before the age of 23. He turned pro in 1961 and won his first international event, the Wills Masters, in 1962.

Over his career, he garnered over 40 international wins, and from 1964-1972 he also achieved eight victories on the U.S. PGA TOUR. His last victory came on the Senior PGA TOUR in 1995 at the FHP Health Care Classic. He retired at the end of the 1998 golf season to continue his involvement with golf through golf course architecture and design.

Over the course of 30 years, Bruce has designed and built more than 150 golf courses throughout the world including Australia, Japan, Scotland, the Bahamas. The bulk of his designs in the U.S. have been in Texas and Florida. Many of his designs have hosted all of the professional golf tours including The Houston Open, Key Biscayne Golf Classic and Health-South LPGA Classic. One of his latest ventures was Seccession Golf Club in Beaufort, South Carolina where The Devlin mid-amateur golf tournament is played each year.

Bruce is married more than 50 years to his wife Gloria and they have three children, six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

THE COURSE

If you have never played Seccession, you are in for a treat. Fourteen holes are routed along the scenic tidal marshes of the Lowcountry, providing both a challenge and exceptional natural beauty. The open, exposed nature of the course guarantees a different golf experience almost every round because of the shifting winds and tides. This, coupled with a dedication to the absolute finest course conditions, assures exceptional golf.

From the moment you arrive at Seccession you know that a unique golf experience awaits you. Much like golf played in the British Isles, the course rarely plays the same during any two-day period. This open, wind-swept beauty offers "Scottish style" bunkering, spectacular marsh views in every direction, a very easy walk and as one would expect, superb course conditioning.
